Corona has made a hard setback to mankind but if every human being accepts the lesson from corona catastrophe it may act as a silver lining as well by teaching us a better survival strategy. The affection of Coronavirus (COVID19) is a special health issue in the year 2020, which is being skillfully managed by the college authority. The classes and other activities except office were suspended from 16 March 2020, and it was totally closed after the declaration of lockdown by the Prime Minister on 22nd March 2020. However, the college office resumed its official duties from the last week of May.

The college building was occasionally sanitized. The Principal, Vice Principal, Bursar, Head Clerk, Cashier, and other important staff were present in the college at least 2-3 days per week. The Governing body meeting took place in the college on 7.7.2020 The teachers have relentlessly performed their duties by taking classes through E-Sashak2 and Zoom App from their houses checking the answer scripts and uploading their marks. Online matching by supplementation of Notes and Suggestions by E-Sikshak1 has been in vogue in this college since 2020. Now has become the Neo-Normal trend of this changing world. In the next year attendance of students may also be counted and evaluation of answer scripts will be made through college portals, if necessary.

Achievements:

Undoubtedly it is true that the total system of education has been implemented after the declaration of the Lock-down phase to prevent COVID 19 in the year of 2020. During the lockdown phase regular classes were taken by the teacher through the college website. Several National and International Webinar lectures were organized by the college. There was a persistent notion or obsession that education is never possible without chalk and talk, though now we are traveling upon the ground of hard reality that uninterrupted classroom education of so many people in our country according to demand and supply would never be possible, especially in case of natural calamity prone areas or in contagious disease prevalent areas. We would have to choose between Conventionalism and Activism, which one would be more suitable for us.

Conventionalism means classroom education and activism means modern system of e-learning. Every idea has got its own limitations. We must conclude that no one is self-sufficient, one has to depend on others. The combination of both will make the education system more meaningful. The first Webinar Lecture was organized by the department of Vocational studies. Dr Debajyoti Chanda, Head, Department of Mass communication and videography, Rabindra Bharati University and Dr Amartya Saha Head, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication delivered lectures. PG Math Department in collaboration with Gurudas College has organized a two days international webinar from 22.6.20 to 23.6.20. Dr. Neil Hindman, Emeritus Professor of Mathematics, Harvard University, delivered a lecture on Topology and its interaction with other fields of Mathematics (on Stone-Cech compactification). Prof Atasi Debray, Dept of Pure Math. CU and Dr Supriya Mukherjee, HoD, Dept. of Mathematics, Gurudas college along with students and teachers of both the colleges were present in the webinar. Also, Prof. M. AKBARI TOOTKABONI, Professor, Department of Pure Mathematics, UNIVERSITY OF GUILAN, RASHT, IRAN, delivered a lecture on the same broad topic (on "ULTRAFILTERS ON σ -ALGEBRA").
